Exclusive to Few's Marquees, and featuring cutting edge structural technology and excellent acoustics, the Igloo allows event designers to create amazing spaces with unparalleled levels of height and light at their disposal. Suitable for large productions, the aluminium structure can be designed in modular widths with PVC coverings available in crystal clear, white opaque, and black out finishes.

Technical Excellence

The Igloo is a unique structure with internal heights of up to 14 metres and almost unlimited length, it is available as standard in 30m width, but also 10m, 15m, 20m, 25m and 40m widths are available.

With a load bearing capacity of up to 3000kg per arch, the Igloo can comfortably support sound and lighting rigs for some of the biggest productions.

For events that require giant/super-structures, we can also offer spans of 50m, 70m and 90m.

Industry Leading Service

Once we know your requirement, one of our project managers will be allocated to support you from start to finish. From quote, site visit, 2D & 3D visuals, 3D renders and installation; every step of the way they'll keep you informed, and be available 24/7 to ensure a stress free process and delivery on time.

We pride ourselves in offering a level of service that is above and beyond the norm in our industry.

Festivals & Concerts

Structures for festivals are all about three things: size, sound quality and strength. The Igloo is available in a variety of spans to accommodate large audiences, has excellent acoustics, along with huge load bearing capabilities to support lighting rigs and sound systems.

Exhibitions & Conferences

Exhibiting your product or service is all about making the right impression. We have structures to ensure that everything is displayed at its best. Your dedicated project manager will help you choose the ideal structure for your event along with all of the available options to make sure your audience is suitably impressed.

Product Launches & Hospitality

When you are offering your best clients corporate hospitality or are launching a new product, you want to ensure a quality experience which reflects your brand and values. We can offer a bespoke service with a project manager working with you from initial enquiry to de-rig ensuring that you can fully enjoy the range of options available.
